New roles for Chard and Crewkerne hospitals but in-patient beds retained

CHARD Hospital will become a "Step-Up" facility whilst Crewkerne Hospital will become a "Step-Down" facility following a decision by Somerset's Clinical Commissioning Group's (CCG) Governing Body.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

The decision was part of a wider community health services framework, and means that in-patient beds will be retained at both hospitals. However, South Petherton Hospital will lose its in-patient beds.

Describing what "Step-Up" and "Step-Down" means, a CCG spokesperson said: "The county's community hospitals need to have a clearly defined purpose and role."

"Step-Up" hospitals will be providing care to people admitted from home and who require 24 hour nursing care with medical review or medical treatment.

"Such hospitals should be combined with an Urgent Care Centre and include medical assessment and in-patient beds."

Chard Hospital is one of five given this designation.

The spokesperson added: "'Step-Down' hospitals would be providing care for people who have been discharged from a district hospital but who still need hospital based rehabilitation."

"Some in-patient beds would be available to help patients recover from ill health, but there would be a focus upon improving health and well-being and supporting patients with long-term conditions, like diabetes, chronic lung disease and dementia."

Crewkerne Hospital is one of seven given this designation.

Amongst the proposals included in the review was a recommendation to permanently close 40 community hospital beds. These beds have been temporarily closed for the last 12 months, and monitoring of bed usage over that time indicates they were surplus to requirements, according to CCG.

CCG members approved the recommendation to permanently close 40 community hospital beds, including those at South Petherton Community Hospital.

A spokesperson said: "There will ongoing patient and public engagement regarding the recommendation and the designation of community hospitals as either 'Step-Up' or 'Step Down'."

"This wider engagement will involve patients, carers, NHS staff and the public and get underway from early 2016."

Commenting, Dr Matthew Dolman, chairman of Somerset CCG, said: "There is no question of the CCG proposing the closure of any community hospital. However, people are living longer and living with more long-term illness, like diabetes, heart disease, dementia and chronic lung disease."

"We must plan now if we are going to prepare our community hospitals to meet this rapid rise in demand for health services and achieve this within existing financial resources."

Using Nutrition to support those with cancer

Thursday 23rd July 2.30pm at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre

WISHING Well, our newly re-launched cancer support group, meets weekly at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre on Thursday afternoons from 2.30-4.30pm.

This Thursday 23rd July at 2.30pm we are lucky enough to be welcoming Elizabeth Bray, a registered nutritional therapist who is going to talk about the ways in which healthy nutrition can help you to maintain optimum health. Elizabeth, who is the regional co-ordinator for and member of the British Association for Applied Nutrition and Nutritional Therapy, has previously supported people at the well-known Penny Brohn Centre in Bristol. She will be bringing some useful recipe booklets to give out during the talk. This talk is free to anyone affected by cancer (past or present) and their carers.

Elizabeth's talk is the last in a series of informative talks and we will be continuing with these in September. Please let us know if you would like us to keep you informed about future events.

We are incredibly grateful to have just received some funding from MacMillan which will enable us to offer free complementary therapies to anyone affected by cancer and their carers. We have a huge range of therapies available at the Centre. Please see our website or pop in for more information about what's on offer and how it could help you.

We also have a wide range of books and literature which may help those experiencing cancer. These are in our well-stocked library and are available to borrow anytime.

If you are interested in helping to run this group or would like to support it in any way we'd love to hear from you. The group meets at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre, Hanover House, Chard Street, Axminster. Call 01297 32331 for more information or to book a place or just come along on the day.

'We have been taken for a ride' by 'inept CCG'

■ FEELINGS of disappointment, frustration and of being taken for a ride have washed over us the last few days.

Having fought against the Transforming Community Services' proposal from the Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) last September, it was they who commissioned a locality wide Stakeholder Reference Group in January to look at alternatives to their original proposals.

Over a period of five months representatives in the form of councillors, GPs, League of Friends, Patient Participation Group and others, along with members from the CCG, debated and considered many alternatives.

The final recommendations were deeply considered regarding both financial and personnel implications, allowing the CCG to save their £500,000 whilst giving the community what they desired. At no time did the senior members of the CCG attend the meetings and showed no interest in the progress whatsoever. It therefore leads to them having no real understanding of the content of the proposals nor the strength of feeling from the group as a whole.

This behaviour epitomises the lack of regard the senior echelon of the CCG have for the community, sitting in their ivory towers making decisions without any consideration for the community as a whole. NHS England have clearly stated that Governing Bodies must engage more with the communities. This doesn't mean paying lip service to it with the sole intention of driving through their original intentions at all costs.

There were obviously some questions regarding the proposals and the cost saving that needed more clarification but the CCG, at no time, sought such clarification. They drew their own conclusions based on their already having made the decision last September which they were hell bent on implementing.

In fact it became clear during the last few months that the process of engaging the community was getting in the way since attempts to communicate with senior people often fell on deaf ears.

The nadir was reached when at the Eastern Locality Board meeting on May 27th it was announced that the GPs on the board were no longer eligible to vote due to conflicts of interest.

The whole reason for the establishment of the CCG,

From the editor's chair Where to go now after hospital beds shock

I HATE to say I told you so - but I'm sorry to say I told you so!

At no time during the months of delicate negotiations between campaigners trying to save in-patient beds at Axminster and the various and confusing NHS bodies did I feel there was any hope of saving the beds.

When the cash-strapped NHS made the unbelievable decision to spend up to £75,000 by challenging a High Court order to prevent the transfer of beds to Seaton, I never thought there was any way they were going to maintain in-patient beds in Axminster.

I have the greatest respect for those on the League of Friends, a fantastic organisation which has done Axminster proud over many years, and the Axminster Hospital Action Group, for the manner in which they have fought to retain the beds.

It has become clear that some of those meetings were extremely difficult but the Axminster campaigners maintained dignity throughout, conducting themselves in a professional manner and adopting a policy of working with the various groups to fund a solution.

There were occasions when I thought they were being too conciliatory but they were led to believe throughout that a solution was possible and even probable.

We now know that was not the case.

The case of the disappearing nurses has been explained, although I find it hard to believe, but no mention has been made of the promise at one of the Axminster public meetings that further consideration would be given to the catchment area that the hospital served.

And the one issue which must surely be addressed at some time is how much has all this cost, especially in officer time, when the NHS is haemorrhaging money.

As we are about to go to press, the CCG is hurriedly trying to issue a press release dismissing some of the claims made on these pages. We will, of course, publish their response.

It's difficult to know where to go from here. Axminster, of course, is not the only hospital to be affected with Ottery also losing beds after an equally robust fight. And it looks like some of the community hospitals in South Somerset also have a battle on their hands.

Efforts are being made to get our MPs to campaign for an inquiry into the whole sad debacle and some are putting great store in the fact that the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital could well be running the community hospitals by the end of the year.

However, that does not necessarily mean the beds will return.

Philip Evans

as opposed to the previous PCT structure, was to ensure that the decisions made were based on the clinical needs of the community.

It was clear, prior to the meeting, that many of the GPs were looking favourably on the recommendation put forward by the Stakeholder Group. Could this have been why the vote was suddenly withdrawn?

The MD, John Finn, showed no understanding of the details of the recommendations and his summary of them at the May locality board was both dismissive and frankly abusive towards the process that had been put in place by themselves.

The latest is that in fact the CCG, who have been named as one of the poorest performing group in the country, are not actually saving the £500,000 but will be investing this in more care at home, which as yet has to be defined.

How much longer do we have to put up with these inept and incompetent people running a failing "business" which is wasting OUR money? They have already been put under special measures and yet they still continue to work in the same way. This is surely one definition of madness. Continuing to do the same things and expect different results. When they did do something different and established the stakeholder group, they refused to listen to it.

How do we go about effecting change here? There are CCGs across the country who are working effectively with their communities to deliver excellence. The NEW Devon CCG do not appear to have looked at best practice otherwise they would not be in the state they're in.

I have no issue with people being paid high salaries when they are delivering excellent results. Surely NHS England needs to review the value for money it is receiving from the Directors of the NEW Devon CCG.

Steve Holt
A resident of Axminster

So what happened to the nurses?

NORTHERN Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (NDHT) has confirmed that newly recruited nurses are not being paid by money from Axminster Hospital League of Friends. A sum of up to £300,000 was offered if in-patient beds temporarily moved to Seaton were brought back to Axminster Hospital.

NDHT, the League of Friends and Axminster Hospital Action Group subsequently launched a joint recruitment campaign, which was expanded to also include posts in other parts of East Devon.

The campaign was so successful that an Axminster in-patient bed reopening date had been set for late July.

But the bombshell news that the reopening was off for the time being reverberated around town last Tuesday. The reason given was "sudden and significant staffing shortages".

The NDHT didn't give a number of nurses, but a spokesperson said: "Having been in a position in June when over 80 per cent of registered nursing posts for Axminster were being filled by permanent staff, the figure has since dropped to 57.5 per cent. There are currently 4.27 full-time equivalent vacancies for registered nurses."

NDHT would not disclose what had caused the sudden drop because of "staff confidentiality" but a source close to the recruitment campaign told Pulman's View that three of the nurses had a sudden change of heart and accepted jobs with Hospiscare instead.

When asked what has happened to staff signed-up and still committed, the spokesperson said: "They will remain redeployed to other sites as required."

The next question was if those nurses' salaries are paid for by the money pledged by Axminster Hospital League of Friends, to which the reply was: "No."

"Any employee deployed to another community hospital while we worked to recruit sufficient numbers of nurses at Axminster has been filling vacancies in those hospitals. Therefore they are paid for by the NHS."

Fire crews rescue three trapped after crash near South Petherton

FIREFIGHTERS from Ilminster, Chard and Yeovil freed three people trapped in wreckage after a serious accident on the A303 between Southfields and South Petherton.

All three were taken to hospital with varying degrees of injuries.

Firefighters were called just before 8.15pm on Wednesday, July 13th and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The caller also requested ambulance and police assistance, so we notified them of the incident whilst mobilising appliances from Ilminster, Chard and a dedicated rescue tender from Yeovil.

"On arrival of the first fire appliance, the officer in charge confirmed a road traffic incident, with one person out of their vehicle, and three people still trapped. The officer in charge requested additional personnel and hydraulic cutting equipment."

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said that three vehicles were involved, with a total of four casualties. Of the three persons trapped, one suffered chest injuries, another casualty suffered leg and head injuries whilst the third one suffered shoulder and stomach injuries. They were all taken by road ambulance to different hospitals, in Bristol, Taunton and Yeovil.

The air ambulance attended but was not used. Emergency services were at the scene for about an hour and were assisted by an off-duty doctor.

Police name A303 victim

A WOMAN who died on Tuesday, July 7th following a three-vehicle collision on the A303 near the Ilminster by-pass has been formally identified.

Laura Barbosa-Garrido, 28, from Spain was living in Taunton. She was taken to hospital following the collision but died of her injuries.

Anyone who witnessed the collision who has not yet spoken to police are asked to call 101 and reference log 126 of July 7th.

Police search for Dillington Park flasher

POLICE are investigating two reports of a man exposing himself to two women in separate incidents whilst they were walking their dogs at the weekend.

The flasher was stood amongst the trees in Dillington Park before casually apologising and walking off in the direction of Bayhill Road.

Police are appealing for anyone who was in the area between 8.30am and 10.30am on Saturday, July 11th to contact them on 101.

The suspect was described as white, in his mid to late 20s with short blond hair. He was wearing a white t-shirt with some blue detailing on the front, blue shorts, and spoke with a West Country accent.

He has been described by one victim as being socially awkward and demonstrating strange behaviour. He has reportedly been seen in the area of Dillington Park on a number of occasions acting strangely.

Anyone with any information should contact 101 quoting reference 74902/15. Alternatively, you can contact Crimestoppers anonymously via its website or by calling 0800 555 111.

MP praises drop in unemployment

LOCAL MP Marcus Fysh has welcomed new figures showing that since 2010 the number of people in his Yeovil constituency claiming Jobseeker's Allowance and Universal Credit while not in employment fell by 710 - a 57 per cent drop.

This means more people in work, with the security of a good job and a regular pay packet so they can provide for themselves and their families.

A statement from Mr Fysh's office also said the figures showed that wages were rising at the fastest rate in real terms since 2007 - rising for the eighth month in a row.

"Across the UK as a whole, there are almost two million more people at work than at the end of 13 years of a Labour government," the statement added.

Mr Fysh said: "This is great news for people who want to work hard and get on in the Yeovil area - with wages rising at the fastest pace since 2007, and over 700 fewer people relying on Jobseeker's Allowance and Universal Credit while out of work.

"This is down to the hard work and the determination of people here, as well as the Conservatives' strong leadership and clear economic plan. The recent announcement about the National Living Wage is great news for workers but we need to make sure we keep helping employers too and I will be pushing hard for the review of business rates to support our small businesses and high streets."

Recycling scheme a success

A COUNTY campaign to recycle more food waste has been a success - thanks to people in Chard and Ilminster.

Based on earlier trials in Street and Wellington, food waste recycling in 115,000 households in Taunton Deane, Sedgemoor and the Chard and Ilminster area of South Somerset jumped 20 per cent. If that rate is maintained, an annual extra 1,570 tonnes of food will be recycled, saving Somerset council tax payers £51,000 every year.

All food waste in Somerset is transformed into electricity and agricultural compost for local farmers at an anaerobic digestion plant near Bridgwater.

The successful campaign will feed into the far wider discussions by Somerset Waste Partnership about the future of recycling and refuse services in the county from 2016/17.

The results were praised by SWP managing director Steve Read: "This is a great result thanks to impressive efforts by families to waste less, recycle more and save cash.

"While we are keen that people waste less food, and compost what they can, any and all remaining food waste must avoid the rubbish bin and be recycled. Let's keep at it."

Appeal launched after serious assault in Chard

POLICE appealing for any witnesses to a suspected serious assault in Chard, for which three men were arrested.

On Saturday, June 27th at about 11pm, a 24-year-old man was allegedly followed by three white men in their early 20s down an alleyway off Fore Street, to the side of Lloyds Bank, where he said he was repeatedly punched and kicked.

The victim managed to escape but reported that he was again assaulted in the car park at the rear of the Co-Operative store.

The 24-year-old suffered a broken eye socket and severe multiple bruising to his face and eyes, the seriousness of the injuries only coming to light after a later medical check.

Three men have been arrested on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm and are currently on police bail.

Anyone with information on this incident should contact Sgt Justin Koerner on 101, quoting crime reference 68985/15, or contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Breathtaking displays wow the crowds at air day

GLORIOUS sunshine and blue skies provided the perfect setting for a dazzling line up at the Royal Naval Air Station (RNAS) Yeovilton International Air Day with a flight down memory lane and a look to the future.

For the third year running temperatures soared at the Royal Navy's premier air day as thousands enjoyed a feast of aviation.

Celebrating 75 years of RNAS Yeovilton, the event saw aircraft of all ages thrilling spectators as they took to the sky with a breath-taking and exhilarating air display.

Crowds of more than 37,000 flew through the gates and air day started as it meant to go on, wowing the crowds as the Sea King, flying the White Ensign, opened the show.

The Vulcan B2, the "jet-powered delta wing strategic bomber" and biggest aircraft of the day, took to the sky thundering over the horizon and took spectators' breath away.

The world's only flying example of the Cold War strategic bomber is in its last flying season and this, the last at RNAS Yeovilton. This was a sad occasion for thousands of flying fans and particularly emotional for Robert Fleming who originally saved the plane for public display.

Mr Fleming has dedicated 18 years to extending the flying life of the aircraft, which served 60 years ago.

He said: "I'm proud of my achievement and of the team. It's the last time we fly at Yeovilton which is always a brilliant home from home for the aircraft."

"I'll be sad to say farewell, but it's the thousands of fans who I feel most sorry for. I always look at the crowds faces when the Vulcan flies - she brings a broad smile to everyone's face. That makes everything we've done worthwhile."

Amongst the many impressive displays, both static and flying, the crowds were bowled over by the Jordanian Falcons and amazed at the skill demonstrated by the Pitts Special who captivated with their acrobatic and spellbinding agility.

The Fleet Air Arm demonstrated their front line capability with displays from the Lynx Wildcat Maritime Force including the very latest edition to the Fleet Air Arm family the Wildcat HMA Mk2 and the Royal Navy's Black Cats Display Team.

This was a significant public display for the Black Cats. For the first time, RNAS Yeovilton's resident helicopter display team took to the skies as a pair.

Lead pilot Lt Dave Lilly said on landing after thrilling the crowd: "This was a fantastic and extra special display for us. It was the first time we've done a public display operating with the two new Wildcats at our home base in front of our home crowd. It's a privilege to show our community what we can do."

His display colleagues were Lt James Woods, Lt Ash Morgan and Lt Andrew Henderson.

Other attractions included a field gun demonstration by HMS Heron, this years record breaking winners of the Brickwoods trophy, and the Commando Helicopter Force Forward Operating Base.

Ending the RNAS Yeovilton's International Air Day was the ever-popular, adrenaline fuelled Commando Assault. This was particularly poignant and memorable, as the Sea King Mk4 displayed for the final time before going out of service in 2016.

The Commando Assault was a farewell to the Sea King and an introduction to the FAA and CHF's newest aircraft, the Wildcat HMA Mk2 and the Merlin Mk3.

Making this a truly joint display of aviation capability, alongside the aircraft of the FAA and CHF were two Apache AH1s from the Army Air Corps' Apache Display Team.

Tatworth Primary celebrates after being graded 'good' in all areas by inspectors

STAFF and pupils at Tatworth Primary School, near Chard are celebrating after inspectors from Ofsted gave it a "good" rating in all categories following an inspection.

The inspectors said the quality of teaching has improved at the school, which now has a "good" rating instead of the "requires improvement" grade received after its previous inspection.

Headteacher Stephen Clarke has been praised for the way he has provided clear leadership for the school during a time when there has been a high staff turnover, providing training and targeted support and guidance to a new team of teachers.

Chairman of the school governors, Val Joslin, said: "We are delighted to get this rating and the governing body will continue to strive for improvement as our aim is to become an 'outstanding' school."

"The inspectors recognised that this is a small school serving the local community and that there has been a real change

■ CELEBRATION: Staff and students from Tatworth Primary School celebrate after improving their Ofsted rating from 'requires improvement' to 'good'

since Stephen Clarke has been head."

Mr Clarke added: "It was very pleasing that the inspectors praised the behaviour of pupils and recognised how pupils had responded well to the higher expectations and improved quality of the appearance of their work following a recent focus we had on handwriting and presentation of school work."

"It is fantastic when the staff, governors, pupils and parents involved in a school all work together and that is what we have here now at Tatworth Primary."

The school was rated good for leadership and management, behaviour and safety of pupils, quality of teaching, achievement of pupils and for its early years provision.

The inspectors sat in on 12 lessons, a whole-school assembly and a classroom-based assembly. They also met with pupils, governors and staff and heard from 72 parents through an online questionnaire. The full report will be published on the Ofsted website.

Tithe barn to host flower show

THE tithe barn at Cotley will be the venue for the 2015 Wambrook Flower Show on Saturday, July 25th.

Doors will open at 2.30pm and one of the organisers, Sue Logan, said: "Our special village show has one of the biggest and best displays of flower show exhibits to be seen in the local area. Last year we celebrated 100 years of local flower shows that have been held at Bewley Down and Wambrook.

"After viewing the exhibits you can browse the stalls, try your hand at the games, enter the grand raffle, and enjoy our famous flower show teas and cakes while Chard Concert Brass play for your entertainment."

The show committee also promises plenty of fun for the children in a safe play area with lots to occupy them.

Entry is by voluntary contribution in aid of Chard Museum and Heritage Centre. Schedules are available from The Cotley Inn and Barleymow's, or can be downloaded online at www.wambrook-parishchurch.com

Council roadshow coming to Chard

A SOMERSET County Council (SCC) roadshow is set to call at Chard.

This is the third year the council has run its "Listening, Learning, Changing" roadshows, asking people to try their hand at balancing its budget with an over-sized set of scales and seeking their views on its priorities and other key issues.

The roadshow will be at Chard Outdoor Market from 8am to 1pm on Saturday, July 25th.

SCC leader John Osman said: "This is a great opportunity for people to come and tell us what we should be prioritising. Balancing our budget is going to be a major challenge for the coming year. We have massive funding cuts to absorb and an ageing population.

"That people are living longer is great news, but it puts increasing demands on the help and support we provide. We estimate we need to save around £30million next year and the only decisions left are tough ones.

"I'm committed to making this a council that listens and want to take people's views into account when we are discussing these tough decisions."

Help and support needed for Ferne's family fun day

FERNE Animal Sanctuary in Wambrook, near Chard, is seeking local support and volunteers for its biggest event of the year, the hugely popular, annual family fun day.

Taking place on Wednesday, August 5th, this event always attracts an enormous crowd and is a great day out for the whole family.

This time the event has a 1940s theme to celebrate Ferne's 75th anniversary this year.

Organiser Sarah Jackson said: "This year everyone at Ferne is really excited as we have more attractions than ever! They include Sharandy's Birds of Prey, Punch and Judy, arena displays, vintage vehicles, a 'History of Ferne' presentation, bouncy castle and rides, face painting, a miniature railway and more.

"There will also be family games from the era and competitions for the best dressed 1940s lady, gent, boy and girl, which will be great fun.

"In addition there will be a tug of war and of course, our annual mascot race, which is hilarious!

"Amongst numerous stallholders, we'll have traditional sweets and a dig for victory (plants and home produce) stall. There'll also be traditional wood turning and wool spinning, a raffle and tombola.

"A 'Dogs at War' photographic exhibition is being very kindly provided by Chard Museum and Heritage Centre. And of course, everyone will be able to meet Ferne's wonderful animals and visit Pets Corner. There will be a children's story teller on site too."

Over £7,000 was raised at the event in 2014 but organisers hope to make this year's fun day the biggest and best ever to celebrate the special anniversary year.

"As well as welcoming new volunteers to help with all sorts of areas on the day, we need donations of books, soft toys (with CE label) and raffle prizes," added Sarah.

Donated items can be dropped off at the sanctuary or at one of Ferne's charity shops in Chard, Langport or Bridport, making sure staff know that any items are for the event.

Refreshments will be available all day. The event is open from 11am until 4pm and entrance is £5 per car. Alternatively, a free shuttle bus service is being provided from Crowshute car park in Chard, passengers of which will receive a discounted entry charge of £4 for a family up to five people and £1 for every additional person. The last bus leaves the sanctuary at 4.30pm.

CLOKS continue to impress audience with 'Guys & Dolls'

AS soon as I saw the musical director in rather a fetching suit for the first time, I knew this show was going to be something special... and it was!

Whenever I see a CLOKS show I always think "How can they improve on this?" and they always do. The acting and singing is always impressive, but there are three other things that particularly impressed me about their recent production of "Guys & Dolls" in Chard Guildhall.

First of all, the costumes. Not only were they highly authentic, but there were several changes throughout the show- costumes like these would easily grace a West End stage.

I think this was the best dressed CLOKS show I've seen, especially as the majority of them were made by the company.

Next, I really liked the use of the live Sally-Ann band - the wheeze and thump was very authentic.

Finally, I always bang on about the hugely limited stage space at the Guildhall, but in this show the choreography really took that into account; the dancing was great, but when the stage was overpopulated, the choreography was minimalised very cleverly and wittily, relying on gesture and expression.

The show is a very challenging one to produce, with its changing of scenes, numerous cast and some difficult songs. The company is now well-established and the acting, especially from the principals, gets better and better.

First, congratulations to John Davis who I think has not yet played a role as high profile as this. A difficult role too, as Sky, an older, sugar-daddy, gambler type - very assured indeed.

I think Otterly Farey is one of my favourite singers. Technically, her voice is very good, but she adds something special, a kind of yearning that really tugs at the heart strings. She played Sarah Brown intelligently, portraying her mood changes - sober to tipsy and back again - very authentically.

I was very impressed with the acting of Grace Evans. A hugely energetic, varied yet finely nuanced portrayal of Miss Adelaide, a nightclub entertainer who is desperate to marry her gambler

THEATRE REVIEW

By Dave Walsham
'Guys & Dolls' - CLOKS

fiancé of 14 years, Nathan Detroit. Very convincing sneezes, too!

Jake Crump was excellent as the beleaguered crap game host. He had a good Danny de Vito approach to the role with some great gestures and expressions.

His employees were superbly played by Gabriel Swarbrick, Sam Hunt and Mia Bond and "Fugue for Tinhorns" was an effective opening ensemble number. They established their characters well, and there was a nice rapport between them with Gabriel's singing is strong and confident.

Calum Syrett had a lot of stage presence as the heavy Big Jule; in fact the whole cast were very engaged and focused throughout. There were too many really good moments to name, but the duets between John and Otterly were delightful, Grace at full pelt as Adelaide was a joy to watch, and the busy crowd scenes were handled expertly.

Often those working on the technical aspects can be unsung heroes, but I did notice the very sensitive and varied lighting plot. One moment a garish razzamatazz scene, and the next a sombre set looking like a painting by Edward Hopper.

There was real attention to detail with the sound, too. Cues were spot on and the balance was perfect. Scene changes and the set were slick and imaginative, with good creative use of the traverse curtain.

Direction was faultless as far as I could see, and I think that the success of CLOKS shows is due to a regular team of very experienced adults, the loyalty, talent and enthusiasm of the cast and the Fareys' dedication to them.

If they extend the Guildhall stage, I would like to see something even more spectacular - "Lord of the Rings"? "Titanic"?

New pathway to provide access to village facilities

SEAVINGTON Playing Field Association (SPFA) will celebrate its 40th anniversary with the official opening of its new "Access All" footpath on Sunday, August 2nd by a member of the founding committee, Chris Wills.

Over the last six months local residents have overseen the project which has seen the construction of a high quality footpath across the playing field, connecting the village to its facilities.

The 150-metre safe access track provides the perfect walk, ride or run to Seavington Millennium Village Hall, Community Shop and Café and the two play areas.

Ensuring that everyone is catered for the path has been especially designed for wheelchairs, with the elderly and families in mind.

Local resident and coordinator Ry Coffman said: "I used to struggle to push my grandchildren across the field in their prams just to get safely to the village shop and that's what initially gave me the idea for the path. The hall, café and village shop are great assets to our villages and now getting there more safely using the field will be made even easier for everyone."

The "Access All" path is the first phase of a scheme to put a path right around the playing field, which will allow it to be used in all weathers by dog walkers, senior citizens and runners, and encourage alternative uses of the playing field.

Its construction has been generously funded by the Big Lottery Awards for All fund, South Somerset District Council, Seavington Parish Council and Seavington Playing Field Association, whilst the path construction has been project managed by local business Ash Bros of Seavington on behalf of the SPFA.

Chairman of the SPFA, Pauline Parsons, said: "This important new path will provide safe transit for all, joining up our facilities and will benefit the whole community."

Volunteers of community shop and cafe celebrate 10 years of trading

VOLUNTEERS at Seavington Community Store and Café, near Ilminster, have celebrated five years of trading and immense community effort.

It all started about 10 years ago when the twin villages of Seavington St Mary and Seavington St Michael produced their first village plan.

It emerged that villagers were still missing the shop and post office, which closed in the mid-1990s.

"Yes please, we'd like a new one," was the resounding message to the village plan committee.

After five years of hard work, fundraising and the actual construction of the building, all guided by the Plunkett Foundation, Seavington Community Store and Café opened on July 14th 2010.

Mark Ellis, the current chairman of the management committee, is continually impressed with the achievement.

He said: "I think it really says something about the people of Seavington, when a village as small as ours can still produce, after five years, the volunteers and enthusiasm needed to run this service professionally."

"It is a truly amazing degree of dedication."

The early years saw difficult times with household spending declining nationwide as the recession progressed, but the dedication of successive volunteer management committees, coupled with the enthusiasm of the villages' volunteers, kept the project focused on providing a sound local service.

The storm of the recession was weathered.

■ HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Volunteers and supporters mark the milestone anniversary

"I can't believe it's been five years," said Sandra Harker, reflecting on the busy week leading up to opening day when she and a small team of volunteers filled all the shelves and priced all the stock ready for opening day.

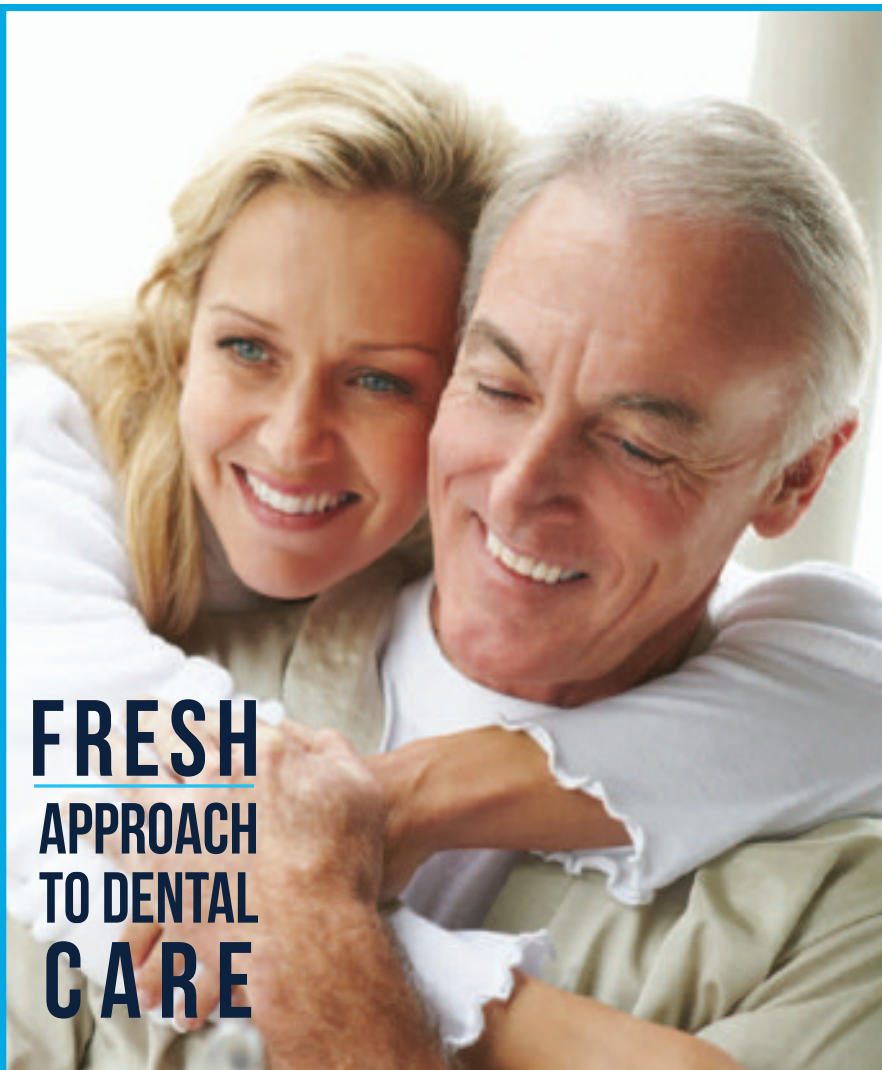

From the onset the café has been an essential part of the business and, to the delight of those who championed the initial idea, has become a firm favourite with walking and cycling clubs as well as villagers.

Located next to the village playground, parents and carers and their young charges have found that the café is perfectly placed for refuelling after a good play session on the field.

Seavington Community Shop and Café is open Mondays to Fridays from 8.30am-6pm, Saturdays 9am-3pm (please note the café closes at 4.30pm during the week and at 2pm on Saturdays).

If you have a few hours to spare each week and would like to join the team of volunteers, contact the shop on 01460 249730.

Pupils learn ancient Hindu dance-drama

PUPILS from Greenfylde First School in Ilminster enjoyed a visit from the Kala Chethena Kathakali Company, which teaches an "ancient and classical" Hindu dance-drama.

The company says Kathakali holds centuries of tradition and culture. They said: "It is not simply a dance-drama but an act of devotion featuring the universal struggle between good and evil. Kathakali provides a window into the past and an opportunity to understand the ancient traditions that have been preserved for centuries in the Kathakali plays."

A spokesperson from Greefylde added: "This was an amazing opportunity to learn more about the Hindu faith and culture and see a cast of performers bringing the stories to life through their dance-drama. The children were fascinated by the costumes and make up and our Year 4 pupils were fortunate in having workshops with the performers for drumming and dance.

"Bringing in performances like these allows our children to understand more about cultural heritage and understand the rich traditions that exist within our world. They had a lot of respect for the performers and were in awe of their talents."

Swanmead praises students' success

■ AWARD WINNERS: Joey Phillips with the MP Citizenship Award, Rotary president Linda Piggott-Vijeh, Millie Tolman with the Ilminster Rotary Community Award and Katie Muntz with the John Wilson Memorial Prize

STUDENTS of Swanmead Community School in Ilminster have been praised for their effort and achievements over the past year.

The school held its annual end of year presentations recently, led by headteacher Mark Waller and with musical entertainment provided by pupils. Guest speaker for the evening was 25-year-old Great Britain Junior Modern Pentathlete, Lydia Gosling, who herself had attended a Somerset middle school, Danesfield.

Lydia gave an inspiring speech to the students, her main points being importance of a well-rounded education and to "do what you love and work hard at it to achieve it".

In his presentation, Mt Waller said that in October he will become national chairman of middle schools. He pointed out that more middle schools are rated "good" or above by Ofsted than any other sector and that children who attend middle schools are able to gain more confidence and a sense of responsibility before moving onto secondary school.

It was also announced during the evening that the chairman of the school governors, Colin Horne, would be standing down after seven years. In addition to thank everyone, he summed up the many diverse opportunities available to students at successful schools such as Swanmead.

Among those presenting prizes was local councillor and newly-installed president of the Rotary Club of Ilminster, Linda Piggott-Vijeh, who handed out two prizes sponsored by Rotary.

Award winners were as follows: Spurway Cup for Sport – Jack Rutter; Alison Rose Trophy for Art – Lisette Bennett; Warehouse Cup for Performing Arts – Josh Evans; Lion's Club Trophy for Endeavour – Sharif Haque; Ilminster Rotary Community Award – Millie Tolman; MP Citizenship Award – Joey Phillips; Headteacher's Award – Taryn White; John Wilson Memorial Award – Katie Muntz.

Residents to be asked for views on highways

SOUTH Somerset residents may be asked for their views on everything from potholes to buses as part of a national survey.

Somerset County Council is one of 86 local authorities to sign up to the National Highways and Transport Public Satisfaction survey.

A questionnaire will be sent to a random selection of 3,300 people across the county to find out what they think about these important services, and residents that receive a copy are urged to take part.

The council's highways and transport spokesman, Councillor David Fothergill, said: "It's vital that we have up to date information about what our residents think and this survey is organised nationally so allows us to compare with other authorities.

"If you do receive a survey through your door, please take a few minutes to fill it out. Your views could really make a difference when it comes to planning future highways and transport services."

This is the largest collaboration between local authorities and offers the opportunity to compare results, share in best practice and identify further opportunities to work together in the future.

Crews called to over fire

AN oven fire in a property in East Street, Crewkerne, was quickly dealt with.

Firefighters were called at 9.10pm on Tuesday, July 14th and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The caller was advised to get everyone out of the property. Fire appliances from Crewkerne and Martock were mobilised.

"On arrival of the first appliance, the officer in charge confirmed the fire was out and no further resources were required."

Annual fete raises £1,300 for hospital

MORE than £1,300 was raised from The League of Friends of Crewkerne Hospital annual fete.

The weather brought out the crowds, and visitors were able to rummage through the bric a brac, toys and books, entering various competitions and find out more about the charities represented at the fete.

League chairman Ron Bond: said "I am very grateful to everyone who worked so hard to make the fete a success and to the businesses in town who are so generous in their support.

"The fete and grand draw raised just over £1,300 for the league, which will be put to good use at the Hospital."

Stalls were run by Cancer Research UK (Crewkerne Branch), Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance, Horseshoes & Handprints, Stoodleys, The Alzheimer's Society, The Royal British Legion, The Crewkerne & District U3A and The Henhayes Centre.

Crewkerne Rotarians organised a tombola and Crewkerne Inner Wheel manned the plants and produce stall, donating much of the produce themselves to raise funds for the League. The ladies of the Crewkerne & Mosterton Baptist Church ran the popular refreshments stall inside the building - and cakes were donated by hospital staff and members of the league.

Mr Whirly did a roaring trade in ice cream and local musicians Hamstone Band entertained everyone with "excellent and delightful music".

Paul Quinn won first prize in the grand draw. David Stansfield won a ride in the Ariel Atom donated by the Ariel Motor Company, Ian Fowler won a fruit cake donated by Bilby's and Lillie Woodhead correctly guessed the number of sweets in a jar. Stokes Partners LLP sponsored the grand draw and Nisa Local provided the £50 first prize.

Other prizes were donated by Barrett Brothers, Bluebirds & Buttercups, Gill and Dave Charnick, Countrywide, Crewkerne News, Cyclelife, Delilah Petal, Harts Antiques, Jazziez, Lilly Belle, Loders, Milly's Naturalife, No 31, North Perrott Garden Centre, Oscars Wine Bar, Robert Frith Opticians, Rodford's, Shear Magic, The Admiral Hood at Mosterton, The Cloth Shop and The Co-operative.

Something for everyone at museum

■ WHITE WITH TWO SUGARS: Janet Harris pours fellow volunteer Sue Story a cuppa in Gallery 3's combined 1940/50s kitchen

CREWKERNE Museum stalwarts hope they have found a mix that will interest both locals and visitors.

The new season has got off to a good start, with some visitors coming from as far afield as the USA and Australia.

Museum volunteer Janet Harris said: "We get a lot of people from abroad, some of them come to research their family history."

But she stressed that locals are catered for too.

For example, the ongoing exhibition about the pub and brewery trade in Crewkerne has already attracted a lot of locals, just like the previous Merriott exhibition did.

"A Pub Crawl Under Crewkerne" closes on September 5th and features everything from ghost tales, cellars that run from one building to another and pubs that diversified by also running a post office, shop or a barrel-making operation.

A series of three children's activity sessions is another new initiative. The sessions are aimed five to 10 year olds and will each have a theme; "Pub Games and Others", "What Was It Like in Grandma's Day" and "Sail Away".

These will be held on July 29th, August 5th and 12th.

Janet also promoted the museum by saying: "A new publication – Sailcloth, Webbing and Shirts – The Crewkerne Textile Industry – is available along with other recent publications such as Crewkerne in 1914 and others that make interesting reading for anyone who knows the locality."

Speed awareness at school

NAOMI Harris has been named the winner of a speed watch poster competition at Haselbury Plucknett Primary School.

Supported by Haselbury Plucknett Parish Council and the Crewkerne police team, the poster campaign and competition was organised by the local Community Speed Watch (CSW) group.

Police and CSW group members held an assembly at the school when the pupils were given a demonstration of how the speed camera is used.

CSW co-ordinator Mike Wroe said: "It was really encouraging to see how well aware the children already were regarding speeding issues in the village. "Following this assembly the children were invited to design a poster on the theme of road safety, particularly in the village.

"The speed watch team was delighted with the response from the children and had great difficulty in choosing a winner from the many excellent entries.

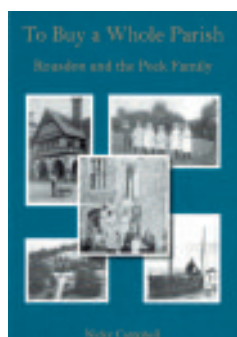

"The worthy winner was Naomi Harris. Congratulations to the school and to all the pupils who participated."

Mr Wroe returned to the school on Friday, July 10th with colleague Michael Thomas to present Naomi, who was enjoying a dress-up day at school, with a book token (pictured).

Ferne Animal Sanctuary

PROVIDING REFUGE FOR UNWANTED ANIMALS

FERNE Animal Sanctuary strives to provide care and refuge for unwanted domestic and farm animals. The Sanctuary rehomes dogs and cats within a 30 mile radius of Ferne. Some horses and ponies are available for permanent loan; all other animals remain at the Sanctuary for the rest of their lives. We rely entirely on donations and legacies to continue its work. Some of the animals come to Ferne because they have been neglected or are no longer wanted. Others come to us because of circumstantial changes of their owners. All animals are given the care, attention and TLC they need to enjoy a happy life while they are at Ferne.

New Digs for Dogs is up and running

FERNE Animal Sanctuary's £1 million New Digs for Dogs building was formally opened in March this year.

BBC Somerset presenter Matt Faulkner cut the ribbon to the joy of sanctuary staff, volunteers and supporters who spent months fundraising for the project.

Based in Wambrook, near Chard, and founded in 1939 by the late animal activist Nina Douglas-Hamilton, Duchess of Hamilton and Brandon, Ferne Animal Sanctuary originally looked after the pets of servicemen and women who were going away to fight for their country.

The sanctuary's old, dilapidated kennel facility, which was nearly 50 years old could not withstand another winter, and so was demolished during March 2014.

The hard work then began to raise the funds needed for the new build. While an incredible £500,000 has come from the charity's reserves saved specifically for this purpose, the remaining £500,000 was raised through donations and special events in less than a year.

The new centre enables the sanctuary to double its current capacity and it can now look after up to 50 dogs. Apart from the kennel block, it also includes an improved grooming and veterinary care room, social unit, offices, reception and a shop.

Elaine Hayes, CEO at Ferne Animal Sanctuary, said at the opening event: "I am absolutely delighted that we are formally opening our new re-homing centre. This is another landmark in Ferne's history as we enter our 75th year.

"This centre will allow us to help more dogs find happy, forever homes across Somerset, Devon and Dorset."

During the opening day, Matthew Crabb, a world-renowned chainsaw artist, carved Ferne's logo into a tree stump as a lasting memory to commemorate the occasion.

The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Jenny Kenton, who attended the opening, said: "Andy and I frequently visit Ferne with our grandchildren, and were absolutely thrilled to be part of the celebrations. To raise half a million pounds in under a year is such a fantastic achievement and just goes to show how much people love animals.

"During the fundraising period, every penny really did count and that hard earned cash is now providing all of us, and the animals, with this incredible state-of-the-art centre. For the animals that are homed here, it is their lifeline.

"We wish Ferne every success for the future and would encourage everyone to come and see the new facility soon."

Ferne Animal Sanctuary is a registered charity open to the public all year round except Christmas Day and New Year's Day. It relies solely on donations. For more information visit www.ferneanimalsanctuary.org or call 01460 65214.

AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

SATURDAY 25TH JULY 2015 • COOMBE FIELD, AXMOUTH

73RD AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

THE Axmouth Village Show is in its 73rd year and we are expecting that the local communities competitive spirit in the fields of Horticulture, Home Baking, Crafts, Photography, Flower Arranging and Children's creativity will be as well supported as last year, being that these are the mainstay of the shows credentials.

The committee hope that villagers, locals and visitors to the area all come along to the show this Saturday to see the fine exhibits on show in the main marquee.

This year's back to basics approach to the show has seen us focusing on bringing Devon produce, entertainment and events to Axmouth for all to enjoy.

The main show ring will have displays by North Devon Falconry, Seaton Majorettes and a children's fancy dress completion, themed on "Alice in Wonderland".

"Devon Bird" will be entertaining all the visitors in the main marquee all afternoon with their own brand of local music.

Local stall holders will have a selection of local produce and entertainments for you to peruse and enjoy, whilst the WI tea & cakes tent and licenced bar will keep you refreshed during the afternoon.

After the prize giving presentation, items from the show tent will be auctioned off, so please stay all afternoon and grab a bargain.

Our Evening entertainment this year features favourite local band "8 to the Bar", bringing you a wide selection of music to dance the night away.

Please come along to the show and have a fun afternoon / evening. See you there.

Steve Neighbour (Committee Chairman)

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

THE show began in 1942 when a Red Cross fund raising committee was formed, led by a young Jim Cross and Len Weekes, a gardener at Stedcombe Manor. They decided that a grand fete was needed to lift the spirits and raise the much needed cash for this crucial part of the war effort. They were invited to hold the fete at Stedcombe Manor by its then owner, Miss Stephens.

The fete was an enormous success and the committee decided it would be repeated annually as a flower show each year, with a great array of home made goods on sale, as far as rationing would allow. When the war ended, the Dig for Victory campaign was in full swing and the Show transferred to the Webber's camp field, combined with the Village Produce Association and started raising funds for various charities including those for soldiers and seamen.

However, the rise of convenience foods and the general decline in vegetable growing meant that the Flower Show had gone into decline by the early eighties and at the same time costs had increased dramatically. A decision was taken to run the show in the Village Hall with stalls and fundraising in the car park. This provided an opportunity for a review of the Show, and a new committee then took forward plans for a major event in the centre of the village.

The offer of a field on an annual basis, from Lady Loveridge and her late husband, Sir John, has led to an increase in the size of the show.

Last Years Show went well, with over 400 contributions to the competitions in the Main Marquee. The Entertainment kept the visitors busy throughout the afternoon and feedback on the Event was very positive. This led to the creation of a new committee committed to maintaining the traditions of the Axmouth Village Show. This said, we are always looking for any assistance in delivering the Show, so Villagers if you want to be part of the committee or just give a helping hand please contact either David on 0129724456 or visit our Web Site <http://villageshow.co.uk/>

Thank you!

SEATON Devon Air Ambulance Supporters Group would like to thank everyone who has contributed towards helping us to put together this wonderful support feature for the town - illustrating the variety of events happening over Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week. Your commitment to helping make our fundraising efforts a success is sincerely appreciated.

Thanks again for your generous support of our efforts to donate as much as possible to Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week 2015

ONE of Seaton's most popular summer attractions, Devon Air Ambulance Week, returns from July 25th to August 2nd. Now in its sixth year, the event is set to raise even more funds for the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

This year it will cost £4.5 million to keep the air ambulances flying; next year this will increase to £5.5 million as from autumn 2016 DAA plan to be flying into the night - right the way up until midnight.

The Air Ambulance Week fun begins on the evening of Saturday, July 25th with comedy hypnotist Niall Flannery at PJs. Tickets are £5 and the event is for over 18s. There will also be a fundraising auction during the interval.

Devon Air Ambulance Week

Saturday 25th July - Sunday 2nd August 2015

On Stage Entertainment

On stage entertainment on the Saturday includes:

Seaton Brownies (12noon-12:45pm)

Adam Sweet (1pm-1:45pm)

To describe Adam as a blues musician is doing him a dis-service, as he is so much more. A driving guitar style and a warm vocal that is influenced by classic rock and blues but sounds very contemporary.

The Awesomes featuring guest vocalists (2pm-3:45pm);

Vinyl Monkeys - two 1hr sets (4pm-6:30pm)

One of the most innovative bands to emerge on the south coast for a long long while. Their energetic rendering of covers from, among others - songs by Kings of Leon and the Killers, Kaiser Chiefs, Cee Lo Green along with their own original numbers, leave the audience wanting more at the end of every gig. The band continues to go from strength to strength with a core following of fans across the southwest

At the Vultures Desk (6:30-7:30pm)

DJ Yellowman (Rasta Steve) (7:45pm-9:30pm).

The place to be seen

The Swing is the Thing

IF YOU WANT to see July out on a high note, then Ilminster Arts Centre is the place to be! On Friday, July 31st Digby Fairweather and his Half Dozen will be setting the joint jumping as they perform at the latest stop in their "The Swing is the Thing" tour.

Led by ebullient front man Digby Fairweather, the Half Dozen is the best known of the UK's mainstream jazz small groups, and has won the UK jazz Award in this category an amazing eight times.

They are as popular with audiences as they are with the critics - and the Arts Centre phone has been receiving enquiries about this concert since the New Year! The level of interest has been such that the Arts Centre is advising "book soon to avoid disappointment".

This is a band of fun-loving musicians, whose music reflects their up-beat outlook on life. This will be an evening of happy, feel-good jazz.

The band consists of Digby Fairweather (trumpet/ cornet/ vocals) who founded the Half Dozen in 1994 and who sells out Ronnie Scott's with every appearance. In 2013 London's 'Worshipful Company of Musicians' presented him with a

Digby Fairweather

'Lifetime Achievement Award' for 'Services to Jazz'; Julian Marc Stringle (Clarinet/ reeds/ vocals) who formed his first band at the age of twelve and made his TV debut at fourteen with Acker Bilk; Chris Gower (Trombone) who joined Digby's Half Dozen in 2001; Craig Milverton (Piano/keyboards/vocals) a founder member Digby Fairweather's Half Dozen and who as a featured soloist has worked with everyone from Acker Bilk to Van Morrison; Dominic Ashworth (Guitars/vocals); Al Swainger (acoustic and electric bass) who joined Digby's Half Dozen fulltime in 2011 following a successful career in the West Country; drummer Nick Millward who began his professional career with Pete Allen and Terry Lightfoot before joining Kenny Ball's Jazzmen in 1998.

Digby Fairweather & His Half Dozen play at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, July 31st at 8pm. Tickets £20 (pre-show supper £12 at 7pm, booked in advance).

Local groups team up to produce The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe

LOCAL amateur theatre groups the Honiton Pantomime Society and the Honiton Players work together to produce Honiton's first full scale musical production at The Beehive in Honiton. The joint group 'The Honiton Community Theatre Company' is putting on the family classic 'The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe' on the July 31st to August 2nd with both evening and matinee performances to suit all audiences. Tickets are just £8 for adults and £6.50 for children with a special group rate for 10 or more people of £6.25.

The two local groups decided to team up on this latest production to celebrate The Beehive being a valuable community asset in the town and to offer performance opportunities to more young people to experience being on stage. The production features both adult and junior members of the groups and is performed with a live band and modern staging at The Beehive which proves to be a flexible performance venue for the groups.

Director of the production Alex Jackson who is Honiton born and bred commented:

"I'm really excited to be bringing this new musical version of C S Lewis' fantasy novel to the stage at The Beehive. This production has a real community aspect to it as we are being supported by many local people to bring you amazing costumes, set and musical as well as a very talented cast who have been rehearsing hard for the last six months to bring you this show"

Honiton Pantomime Society are fresh from their sell-out run of Sleeping Beauty at The Beehive which had rave reviews from audiences and reviewers alike:

"If there were tickets left, I'd snap them up, but they're all sold out. Better than the last West End show I saw" Audience member, February 2015

"Once again the society brought the local community together for an enjoyable evening of sparkling entertainment." Janet Elworthy NODA rep for South West district.

The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe will be performed at The Beehive in Honiton on the 31st July and 1st and 2nd August with both matinee and evening performances.

Tickets are £8 adults, £6.50 children, and groups of 10+ £6.25 each. To book call Box office: call 01404 384 050, visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk or you can purchase tickets in person at the Beehive. # How the West was sung

JIM CAUSLEY and Friends will host a unique West-fest for Lyme Folk's finale on Sunday, August 23rd with 'How the West was Sung', a music-packed evening of song and banter, from local artists celebrating our beloved West Country, supported by Six Days, the Lyme-based brother and sister duo making big waves on the folk circuit Treading the boards with Jim, our patron and award-winning singer-songwriter, will be Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll, a fiddling duo from North Devon and Bridport; Thorn and Roses, an acapello trio from Cornwall; Maggie Duffy and Mike Weed, singer/songsmith from Brixham and accompanist, and the award-winning boys from East Dorset, Ninebarrow.

How The West Was Sung celebrates the diversity of the West Country, from the rugged upland Moors of its interior to the gentle seas around Lyme Bay. With songs of murder most foul in Chagford, happenings in an alleyway in Port Isaac or a Honiton lace-makers lament, the music documents the legends, work and people of the West, whether on land or sea. Using both traditional and newly written songs, the evening "showcases our great home-grown talent" says Jim Causley, "sharing the region's strong oral traditions of funny, sad and illuminating musical stories to bring our wonderful West to life on stage".

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said: "This is a musical extravaganza – it's like another mini-festival, with nine individual artists, all sharing a stage at the same time, singing and playing in the round about the characters and landscapes they come from and care about. It'll be fun, moving and hugely entertaining. And what's the odds on a rousing song celebrating cider at some point in the evening?"

This year's folk festival, now in its third summer, has a full programme of singing, dancing and music-making at Marine Theatre and other venues around the town.

How the West Was Sung, Sunday 23 August, Marine Theatre, Doors open 7pm.

Tickets: £12 (seated), under 16s: £7 from www.lymefolk.com or via 01297 442138 or visit Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety

ANXIETY and stress can often create symptoms that in time cause illness. Anxiety is known to produce noticeable physical symptoms, such as rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, and digestive problems. In General Anxiety Disorder (GAD) and Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) the symptoms become so severe that normal daily functioning. Clinical Hypnosis and Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) are common treatments for stress and anxiety disorders and can be very effective in changing thinking and responses.

In contrast with CBT and in many ways very similar to Hypnosis Mindfulness and mindfulness-based therapies (MBTs) seek to change the relationship between the anxious person and his or her thoughts.

In mindfulness, the person focuses on the bodily sensations that arise when anxious. Instead of avoiding or withdrawing from these feelings, the focus is on remaining present and fully experiences the symptoms of anxiety. Instead of avoiding distressing thoughts, opening up to them in an effort to accept that they are not literally true, just ideas and imaginings often related to the past or future events but no less unreal in the present.

By remaining present in the moment aware of the breath and the body, individuals can learn that the anxiety they experience is merely a reaction to thoughts. By positively responding to threatening events instead of being reactive they can overcome an mistaken stress fight-or-flight response, and take control of their life.

The New BMW 320d ED Sport

BMW is now offering a sportier look and design to the popular EfficientDynamic models of the 3 Series. Based on the recently introduced ED Plus model, the ED Sport adds the sporting design characteristics of Sport trim, to the class-leading efficiency of the 320d ED engine. Powered by the new 2.0-litre engine and available in either a six-speed manual or the class leading eight-speed automatic, the new model teams effortless performance with better than ever emissions and fuel consumption.

Thanks to an extensive suite of EfficientDynamics technologies, the new BMW 320d ED Sport emits just 104g/km of CO<sub>2</sub> (manual: 108g/km), and has a combined fuel consumption of 70.6mpg, making it the cleanest and most fuel-efficient sports model in the 3 Series range. The improved technologies include Active Air Flaps integrated into the kidney grill and a lowered suspension set-up, both working to improve aerodynamics and overall performance and efficiency. This allows the 320d ED Sport Saloon to occupy a VED Band B and the Touring model to occupy the VED Band C with a Benefit in Kind (BIK) taxation rate of only 19 and 20 per cent respectively (Automatic: 19 and 20 per cent). This impressive fuel economy doesn't impact on performance with the 2.0-litre diesel engine developing 163hp and an acceleration from zero to 62mph in 7.8 seconds on its way to a top speed of 143mph.

Owners of the 320d ED Sport can also benefit from a low cost of ownership thanks to the £350 increase in residual value of the vehicle over the ED Plus. This allows customers to have the additional sporting styling and enhanced specification of the ED Sport for just £3 more than the cost of the ED Plus model.

With an OTR price of £30,205, the 320 ED Sport comes with more standard equipment and an even greater scope for personalisation. With 17-inch light-alloy wheels as standard, as well as Business Navigation, a selection of Dakota leather upholsterys, Sports steering wheel, unique trim finishers and Heated Sports Front Seats - The ED Sport provides an additional £840 of standard equipment for only £500 more than the ED Plus model. There are a wide variety of options available including a range of 18-inch or 19-inch wheels as well as the extensive range of technologies available to the rest of the 3 Series range.

Iminster remain bottom of Somerset Premier SIDMOUTH WIN AT EXMOUTH IN DEVON PREMIER

SOMERSET CRICKET

West of England Premier Cricket League

Premier One

Iminster 1st XI

Iminster 142 all out (6) lost to Bristol 277 all out (20) by 135 runs. ILMINSTER remain bottom after this defeat by Bristol. Electing to bat the visitors lost an early wicket to Louis Kraucamp (2-49), but with opener Sam Snell hitting a magnificent 124 and ably supported by Will Young (20) and James Bracey (58) they took the game away from Iminster.

Harry Montacute (3-55) finally broke their stranglehold and Sam Grinter (4-45) cleared out the bottom order, leaving Iminster to chase 277.

Things didn't start too well in reply with John Hurford (0) soon back in the pavilion, and when Jonny Warry (10) and Kraucamp (20) also perished it was left to Charlie Vickery to try and turn the tide.

He made a splendid 52 not out, but with only Craig Rice (14) and Montacute (12) reaching double figures, Iminster fell well short of their target.

Premier Two

Chard 1st XI

Keynsham 230 all out (7) by 5 wickets. Chard 229 all out (7) by 5 wickets. ALTHOUGH they lost Tim Wighton (1) early on George Retter and Reid Mawdsley (22) added 60 for the second wicket. Tom Wright (22) helped Retter add a further 48 before the opener was dismissed for a solid 74 that included eight 4s and three 6s.

Jon Dalwood kept the score ticking over with eight 4's in his unbeaten 54 as Chard reached a respectable 229 all out.

Scott Wells-Burr (1-40) removed Josh Tasman-Jones in the first over, but that was Chard's only real success as the next four home batsmen helped themselves to runs with Daniel Jarman top scoring with 87 as they passed Chard's total with two overs to spare.

Somerset Division

North Perrott

North Perrott 200-9 (7) lost to Wembdon 241-6 (19) by 41 runs. LEADERS North Perrott lost to third place Webdon despite good batting performances from skipper Gordon Whorlow (46) and Brett Johnson (52).

Chasing 242 for victory, only Will Ireland (23) with a late rally scored many, before becoming the fourth batsman to be run out as they chased their target.

Earlier the home bowlers toiled as Joshua Marrs hit fifteen 4s and a six in his 111 from 122 balls.

Premier Two 2nd XI

Chard 2nd XI

Chard 2nd 146 all out (7) lost to Taunton St Andrews 166 all out (17) by 20 runs. CHARD 2nds dropped to fourth behind their victors following this 20 run defeat.

They looked in a strong position after bowling out Taunton St Andrews for 166 and made a solid start in reply with Nathan Johnson (18) and Liam Carrison (41) putting on 48 for the first wicket, and although they lost Adam Veitch for a duck on the same score, Carrison and Andrew Clancy (25) added a further 50 for the third wicket.

However they crashed from 98-2 to 117-8 as Tom Radley (5-24) ripped out the middle order, and although Stephen Denning (14) and Callum Hayes (10) showed late resistance, they fell 20 short of their target.

Bristol & Somerset 2nd XI

Iminster 2nd XI

jack high bowls round-up

Honiton foursome win the Foundation Shield

HONITON with Julie Grant

IT WAS a fabulous win for four Honiton bowlers at Feniton in their Foundation Shield.

Peter Goodwin, Joan Mackintosh, Bob Macintosh and Bill Nicholls played six games of four ends and came out victors against 11 other teams with a great shot difference of 21, well done you four.

Off to Leamington again; Sue Evans helped Devon ladies win through in the county double rink Walker Cup when, in pouring rain, they beat Worcestershire 43-35 and Somerset 38-33.

Some disappointment though as Devon lost their John's run to Somerset and Honiton ladies lost their Interclub quarter-final to Tiverton West End.

In the mixed friendlies Honiton have won a couple and lost one.

Against Belmont Honiton won 71-59; top rink - Joan Mackintosh, Heather Chambers, Ken Clarke.

Against Paignton Torbay Honiton won 79-49 despite heavy rain reducing the game to 14 ends; top rink - Eileen Dommett, Fred Dart, Keith Parsons.

However Honiton lost to Exonia 71-78; top rink - Di Hawkins, David Lindley, Carol Armitage, Ken Clarke.

Winning ways returned at Axminster with a fine 76-50 victory; top rink - Maureen Wilcocks, David Downs, Gerry Stafrace 24-9.

The ladies also enjoyed a win over Sidmouth at home 56-42; top rink - Joan Mackintosh, Heather Chambers, Ann Hillyear 22-10.

The men's Over 60s A team were disappointed to lose to a team they had previously beaten, the score being 27 to Honiton and 42 to Cullompton.

SEATON with Maria Johnson

ON MONDAY, July 13th the club had a four-rink mixed match away at Phear Park.

We won on only the one rink; the players were D. Millard, A. Carter, P. Grigg and J. Allison.

Tuesday afternoon was taken up by playing Ilminster at home; we won by a narrow margin of 51-47. The best rink was A. White, K. Harris, D. Morley and R. Carnell.

The Men's Over 60s played Belmont on Wednesday, July 15th claiming six points out of eight. The top rink was P. Newton, K. Shean and L. Tooze.

The ladies fours travelled to Topsham to play a team from Ivybridge in the Interclub Comp; the final score was 50-27, one rink winning convincingly 33-7.

The winning rink was A. Mayhew, R. Grigg, L. Stone and M. Vessey. Our supporters thoroughly enjoyed watching the game whilst sat in the pleasant surroundings.

We are now through to the next round, further than we have reached before.

The TCL played away at Ottery winning on three out of four rinks, losing 88-80. Winning rink was A. Mayhew, R. Grigg, D. Yardley and L. Tooze.

On Saturday a team called The Nomads joined us at Seaton. The Nomads are a drawn team from four counties - Cornwall, Devon, Dorset and Somerset - to raise money for charity.

Seaton won overall 124-119, with £60 being raised on the raffle. The leading rink was N. Stone, E. Talbot, H. Smith and J. Veith.

Runners set off into the woods

HONITON

ON MONDAY, July 12th Morganhayes Woods was inundated with runners of all ages. They were taking part in the Woodland Relays organised this time by Axe Valley Runners.

It is a fun event fiercely challenged by AVR, Honiton Running Club, N1 Tri Club, Met Office, Ex-mouth Harriers and Sidmouth Running Club with some very fast Upottery Primary School children in attendance too.

No matter what age the participant is, everyone runs in relay teams of three tackling the 3k hilly route of muddy tracks designed by Garry Parrett.

The overall winning team was the Livingstone family in the very speedy time of 36 minutes 58 seconds.

The first Honiton team home were the Honiton men finishing 3rd overall in 40:01 and made up of Kevin Hawker, Karl Hodson and Steve Selley.

The Honiton Junior Girls were next back coming 6th overall and not only winning the prize for 1st U17 girls but were also 1st female team home overall.

They took 44:35 and were made up of Flo Swan, Morgan Davy and Jasmine Stone. Jasmine challenged Alasdair Moffett to the line and he made up Honiton's next team home in 44:39.

That team took the mixed adults prize and was made up of Suzanne Spiller, Judy Davey and Alasdair.

Honiton's mixed junior team also had success winning their category to finish 11th overall and 46:16.

It was great to see so many teams out with Honiton making up 17 of them out of the 35. Thanks to Garry Parrett and the rest of AVR for another great Woodland Relay.

■ A warm muggy evening on Dartmoor saw 250 runners taking part in the 30th Haytor Heller.

This is an extremely tough six-mile event which starts halfway up Haytor which runners have to ascend before setting off across the moor where they climb Hound Tor at the halfway point before returning to Haytor which they climb once more before a fast descent to the finish below.

Ian Stewart had a great race for Honiton finishing in 46:30 and finishing 13th overall. Howard Bidmead was next having had a good run in 58:25 in 93rd place.

Louise Crisp completed the Honiton team and finished strongly in 61m coming in 116th. The race was won by Aaron Tocknell from Torbay in 41:09.

CHARD

CRRs were involved in two events this weekend. Setting the legs running first was the White Star Running Dorset Invader A Roman Themed Marathon around the Hills and Roman routes of Blandford.

With CRRs Paul Fraser and Bernie Genge heading into battle, this tough off-road marathon was building to be the popular challenge all 250 runners were hoping for.

Striding out was Bernie Genge tackling his 90th marathon. Bernie set a great pace to in the first half of the race and then with the experience behind him he consolidated his position to come across the line in 56/250 and a time of 4h 26m 53s.

Heading out on his 10th Marathon of the Year was Paul Fraser. Building on recent events Paul progressed through the field and enjoying the great atmosphere to cross the line in a time of 5h 54m 06s.

The second event to attract the CRR's runners was the the first inaugural running of the Ribbon Run 10k and 2k fun run, organised by CRR Stalwarts Maria and Chris Wadey in aid of Cancer charities. With this being the first time for all runners the event attracted a strong field from first time racers to experienced, all enjoying the warm weather and well marshalled route.

First out of the starting blocks for the CRRs was Wayne Loveridge. Setting off strong, heading the field he maintained good pressure crossing the line in second place.

Heading out next was CRR Stevie Potter who pushed off from the line with a committed run which paid off with a very strong second place.

Claire Pomeroy was next to show for CRRs with a very strong performance and a marvellous 20th position overall.

Matt Baker kept his recent round of strong races to take the line in 24th position. Chan Chant rounded off the CRRs' race with a strong finish and showing the true spirit of the event.

A big well done for stepping forward in bringing together this event Chris and Maria.

HONITON with Liz Rogers

IT HAS been another busy week at Honiton Golf Club with Stewart Slater, the Club Captain, holding his Away Day (Thursday, July 9th) at Teignmouth Golf Club.

Forty-four club members made the trip to support the Captain and were greeted with beautiful blue skies and spectacular views as they navigated the course. A good fun day was had by all together with a meal and prize giving.

The winning team was Joan Smith, Max Pipe, Keith Lloyd and David Hughes. A coach then transported the Club Captain and other members back to Honiton Golf Club where more fun was the order of the evening.

Next up on Sunday, July 12th was the club captain's Day at Honiton Golf Club. Always one of the main events in the calendar, a full house of 120 players turned out this time in the rain to compete for an excellent prize table provided by the captain.

The rain did not dampen spirits and some excellent golf was played, especially from Paul Richie who clearly likes playing in the rain.

Paul won the main captain's prize with 42 points and a handicap reduction. After the prizegiving, members were treated to an impressive professional golf trick show outside the clubhouse.

Members were then treated to a very enjoyable evening listening to and dancing to an excellent live jazz band. The club captain and social committee used the day as an opportunity to raise funds for the club and in the region of £1500 was collected.

The men's team maintained their winning ways this weekend when they defeated Bigbury Golf Club at home in the Dartmoor League 3-2 in a very close encounter.

Mixed Section

THIS week the Tuesday Mixed ran two competitions with the same format. It was a Foursomes Stableford.

Alongside the mixed Foursomes Stableford competition was the re-arranged Fitch Foursomes competition. This is for married couples only and the format can be quite testing!

However, a happy, albeit wet, afternoon was enjoyed by all and 34 players entered either one or both competitions.

All the winners were married couples who had entered both competitions. The winners were Catherine and Charlie Doherty with 39 points.

In second place were Heather and Peter Clarke with 38 points and in third place were Sue and Paul Ritchie with 37 points. Fourth place went to Elizabeth and Ken Wood who had 36 points and a better back nine than their nearest rivals.

Ro and Chris Poole are this month's organisers and Ro presented the winners with the Fitch Plate and a voucher.

Ladies Section

This week was Lady Captain's Day. Lady Captain, Olwen Eaton, made sure it was a very Irish affair.

All the players had to wear something green for the day but one player, namely Trish Swindell, took it very seriously and turned into an Irish Leprechaun. She received a special prize for her ingenuity!

As for the golf, the winner of the Lady Captain's prize with 37 points was Ann Traying.

In Silver Division, Jane Watts continued her excellent form with 36 points to gain first prize. She was followed by Anne Davies, who achieved 33 points, beating Jackie Seager on countback.

In Bronze 1 Division, Sharon Dacre came in first with 35 points, followed by Jan Hill on 34 points and then Liz Wood on 30 points.

In Bronze 2 Division, Linda McLaughlin was once again in winning form with 32 points. Jan Lloyd was 2nd with 31 points and Sheila Taylor took 3rd place with 26 points.

The best front 9 score was taken by Sue Ritchie with 18 points and the best back 9 score was 19 points achieved by Chris Pearce.

In the 9 hole Stableford competition, Joy Kerr took first place with 14 points.

Bridport spoil the party

■ GREAT EVENT: Merriott's Gruffalos (red and black) and Minions (gold) pose with Bridport (grey) at the end of the tournament

▲ MERRIOTT'S newly formed Under 7s played their first competitive matches recently in a triangular tournament against Bridport at the Recreation Field.

The Gruffalos side were the first to play the visitors in a ten-minute each way five-a-side game.

Bridport took an early lead, but two goals just before the break saw Merriott go ahead; Bridport struck twice in the second half to win 3-2.

The Gruffalos then played Merriott's other team, the Minions, who scored two quick goals and looked like they might have an easy win.

But the Gruffalos dug in and reduced the arrears early in the second half, only for the Minions to score a late goal to win 3-1.

It was all to play for in the final game with Bridport and the Minions having won a game each, but Bridport won through after scoring three first half goals.

They added a fourth before Merriott scored a consolation, and then rounded off with a fifth. The game, played in the right spirit, showed great sportsmanship by all three teams.

Expertly officiated and organised, the sides entertained a large crowd of spectators who were treated to a wonderful morning's entertainment.

All players received a medal for their efforts at the end of the tournament.

Bridport Youth would like to thank Merriott Youth for the invitation and their wonderful hospitality.

Chard well beaten in Challenge Cup

Bridport 4 Chard Town 0

ULTIMATELY this was a fairly easy victory for Bridport over Chard Town, but it didn't look that way to begin with.

This pre-season friendly which doubled as the annual Chard Chairman's Challenge Cup started with the Robins' Louis Gilman firing over the top from 25-yards after three minutes.

Four minutes later a long ball over the top put Ed Butcher free down the left channel who fired in a fierce left foot shot that keeper Ashley Weeks parried away for a corner.

Chard were then unlucky not to have taken the lead in the 12th minute.

Braden Symes did well to hook the ball across goal where the impressive Scott Holland managed to get his head to the ball, but his flick header struck the angle of the goal frame and went over.

Bridport finally responded. Tom Richardson had done well to get in a good volley after hooking the ball from behind him, which took a deflection off a defender.

Robins keeper Jason Hutchings going the wrong way, somehow managed to stick out his right hand to stop the ball.

Weeks came to the Bees rescue again on 16 minutes when Alan Hill missed a through ball, allowing James Boyland to run on goal, but once again the former Portland keeper palmed away his angled shot.

Slowly Bridport got a grip on the game and began to look menacing going forward, and they showed their intent when Adam Symes picked out Richardson who forced Hutchings into a good save from his angled volley after muscling his way past Shaun Wells-Burr.

However Hutchings might have done better on 21 minutes when Bridport took the lead following a free kick given for handball 25 yards out and level with the with the edge of the penalty area.

Ryan Dovell starting his first game since recovering from a serious knee injury, whipped the ball over the wall and inside the near post, and although Hutchings managed to get his hand to the ball but could not stop it going in the net.

The game settled down after this with both sides playing some neat football without really troubling the keepers, before an excellent build up saw Bridport extend the lead on 35 minutes.

The experienced Warren Byerley saw Matt Condliffe making a run down the left touchline and skilfully cushioned his header from a ball out the Bees defence, into the wingback's path.

Condliffe flicked the ball past a defender as he cut along the byeline before lobbing the advancing Hutchings from the acute of angles.

Then a minute from the interval the Chard defence missed Adam Symes' right wing cross where Richardson controlled the ball before rifling a low shot into the corner of the net to give the Bees a three goal cushion at halftime.

The second half saw Bridport take more control of the match, with Richardson unlucky not to have added to his goal.

First he was denied by Leigh Bailey as he tried to force the ball home from close range, before he thudded a header against the crossbar from substitute Rhys Hayter's cross.

On 70 minutes however he turned provider when he robbed Robin's substitute Ryan Parrish near the byeline and dinked in a cross for Rhys Hayter to volley home at the far post from close range to complete the scoring.

Chard refused to give up and kept going, and after Max Westlake worked hard to hold off two challenges when the ball fell to Jamie Barfoot, he lobbed his shot over the top.

Shane Evans, who once again went about his business unobtrusively in the heart of the Bees defence, almost scored after he broke forward, but after exchanging and receiving a deft pass from Byerley, was thwarted by the outrushing Hutchings who spread himself to block his effort.

Chard should not be too disappointed by the result, for they played some excellent football particularly in the opening quarter of the match, but Bridport's superior fitness showed through as the game progressed.
